SAARWEINE GROSSER LAGEN

2019 Bockstein Riesling GG

The Ockfener Bockstein, indisputably one of the most valuable Riesling terroirs in the world, rises up majestically in a narrow tributary valley of the Saar. With its coarse Devonian slate soils and the barren greywacke as a basis, this mountain produces finely spiced Riesling wines which are rich in character and have delighted connoisseurs for centuries with their distinctive mineral flavour and long life.

Yves Beck (Buchautor und Weinjournalist): Gelb mit grünen Reflexen. Ausladendes Bouquet, geprägt von Früchten, Gewürzen und einer erfrischenden krautigen Note. Rassiger und schmackhafter Auftakt. Der Wein wird ideal von seiner Struktur unterstützt, die was lebhaftes und eine salzige Note verleiht, besonders im letzten Teil des Gaumens. Ein vielversprechender Wein. 2023-2040 94-95/100

Robert Parker: 2016 Weingut van Volxem Bockstein Riesling Spätlese 94 Punkte

Drink Date 2024 - 2050 Rating 94

Van Volxem's 2016 Bockstein Riesling Spätlese has a pure, stony, remarkably fine and fruity bouquet with grapefruit and tropical fruit flavors. Delicate and round on the palate, with remarkably fine, crystalline texture, this is a highly elegant and weightless Spätlese with great finesse and tension in the long, pretty complex finish. It has a juicy, very stimulating aftertaste. Tasted March 2018
